Jennifer Granholm

Secretary, U.S. Department of Energy

Jennifer M. Granholm was sworn in as the 16th Secretary of Energy on February 25, 2021, becoming just the second woman to lead the U.S. Department of Energy.

Secretary Granholm will lead the Department in helping America achieve President Biden's goal of net-zero carbon emissions by 2050 by advancing cutting-edge clean energy technologies, creating millions of good-paying union clean energy jobs, and building an equitable clean energy future. Secretary Granholm will also oversee DOE's core missions of promoting American leadership in scientific discovery, maintaining the nuclear deterrent and reducing nuclear danger, and remediating the environmental harms caused by legacy defense programs.

Hi Tarek,

Thank you very much for Motorpool's support of SR Syed's visit March 29-April 1. All our trips went smoothly!

It was also a pleasure to work with Emad Hamdy Galal Yassin. He is friendly, was always on time, navigated traffic like an expert and found us the best routes to our meetings. He was very accommodating to our last-minute timing changes as well.

Best regards,
Kim Bassotti
